

We are pleased to welcome David Butcher and Peter Bird as Senior Advisors to The Lantau Group

David brings senior policymaking experience to his client work throughout Asia, Central Asia, Africa and the Middle East. In New Zealand, David served as Parliamentary Under-Secretary for Agriculture, Lands and Forests from 1984, entering Cabinet in 1987 as Associate Minister of Finance (until 1988) and Minister of Energy and Industries and Commerce with responsibility for business regulation. David is now the Manager of David Butcher and Associates, Wellington, New Zealand, a consultancy focused on strategic business planning, restructuring government enterprise, regulation of utility sectors such as electricity and telecommunications as well as a diverse range of other issues related to facilitation, governance, transparency and economic reform.

Until June 2012 Peter was Executive Vice-Chairman of Rothschild's financial advisory business in Singapore, having moved from London in 2008. He has advised leading corporations on acquisitions and disposals in the energy and infrastructure sector; numerous governments on privatisations in developed and emerging economies; borrowers on project finance, acquisition financing and debt restructuring; and governments on energy industry restructuring in the UK, Europe, Australia, South America and Asia. Peter has an MA and PhD in economics from the University of Cambridge and has published over 30 articles in economics journals.

About TLG

TLG is a leading strategy and economics consultancy with a particular focus on Asia Pacific energy markets. We provide our clients with economic and regulatory consulting services, transaction support, asset valuation and assistance in the development and evaluation of business strategy.

We combine global and regional industry insights, rigorous problem solving skills and deep dive analytics. We are committed to excellence, responsive service, and the relentless pursuit of robust, practical solutions. Depending on project requirements, we also work with leading law firms, technical consultancies and other experts. As a result, our clients work with us on some of their most important decisions.

With extensive on the ground experience throughout Asia, a proud record of service and achievement, and access to leading advisors around the world, we help our clients make better decisions.

Our name signals our business focus in the Asia Pacific region

Lantau Peak, on Lantau Island in Hong Kong, is also known as Chinese Phoenix Mountain, aptly reflecting the importance of reinventing the energy sector to meet the tough new challenges of rising costs, environmental sustainability, energy security, technology, competition and globalisation.

Our Senior Advisors are independent professionals who work with TLG and our clients on special projects and opportunities requiring their unique and exceptional expertise
