

Careers at The Lantau Goup

We are a specialist economic consultancy focusing on the Asia Pacific energy industry.

The energy sector is changing rapidly and nowhere is that both more evident and more important than in the Asia Pacific region.

We work with some of the biggest names across the region: from Oman to Japan, and from China to New Zealand.

We work across the spectrum from market research to policy analysis, from commercial due diligence to indepth modelling, from the gas and power markets to renewables, new technologies and beyond.

"The working environment is what makes me really happy. Employees are encouraged to quickly grow through working with intelligent and experienced colleagues on diverse projects."

Miaosu Li, Analyst, Shanghai

Collaborative teams help people grow and develop new skills quickly.

At TLG everyone contributes from day one.

"I love the positive work culture. Senior staff are always willing to provide me with learning opportunities; always making themselves available regardless of rank and position. We all respect and cooperate with each to achieve a better result."

Tina Cui, Analyst, Seoul

We have offices throughout the region.

"In the post-Covid world, the Asia-Pacific energy sector has reaffirmed itself as one of the most dynamic, exciting, and fastest-growing markets globally. As the pre-eminent strategy and economic advisory firm serving the Asia Pacific energy sector, TLG offers engaging, challenging, and rewarding careers for dedicated individuals with an interest in regulatory economics, transaction advisory, data analytics and modelling, strategy, and much more."

Develop Your Career at TLG

We are looking for smart, capable, self-starting, problem solvers who want to work in a diverse, dynamic, supportive, but not overly structured environment.

We pride ourselves on the diversity and dynamism of our company. We are an equal opportunity employer.

“Since joining TLG, I have been exposed to a variety of new ideas, markets, and skills. It is rewarding to know that from day one you are contributing in a meaningful way to projects that really do matter.”

Tom Wilson, Analyst, Melbourne

“What makes me most excited about working in TLG is that you are constantly learning new things and gaining new skills.”

Xiaoran Liu, Consultant, Hong Kong

“TLG has offered a real diversity of experiences, allowing me to develop a broad consulting skillset while also pursuing my emerging interests in specific disciplines and geographies.”

Sam Winward, Senior Manager, Singapore

“Working at TLG is truly a rewarding experience. Whether it’s the breadth of topics we work on, diverse expertise of people, or encouraging teamwork environment, there are always immense opportunities for learning.”

Elizabeth Zhu, Analyst, Singapore

“To me, it is important that TLG is the kind of place I can imagine wanting to work when I was starting out. One of the most rewarding feelings in the world is helping our rising talent develop into successful consultants and potential future partners.”

Mike Thomas, Partner, Hong Kong

Our team is diverse but all share outstanding writing, analytical and quantitative skills in addition to an interest in energy economics, public policy, and the challenge of solving business-critical problems. Our core attributes include:

- Strong logical problem-solving skills;
- Creativity, practicality and common sense;
- An ability to achieve top performance and maintain good humour under pressure;
- A fundamental interest in consulting as a career choice; and
- Fluency in written and spoken English.

In addition, everyone at TLG is united in the highest standards of personal integrity.
